

The background of the entire page is decorated with Mid-Autumn Festival motifs. At the top, there are pink cherry blossom branches. Several glowing orange lanterns are scattered throughout: one on the left, one in the top right, and one in the middle right. In the center, a large, bright full moon is depicted. Overlaid on the moon are two golden rabbit silhouettes facing each other, with a circular golden medallion between them. The medallion contains a traditional Chinese symbol for good fortune. The overall color scheme is warm, with yellows, oranges, and pinks.
